

It is important that all Customers and potential Customers understand that each person's results will vary – there are simply no guarantees as to the level of success or income you may experience. The testimonials and examples Insane Webinar Profits uses are very often exceptional results that do not apply to the average Customer and are not intended to imply or guarantee that one will achieve the same or similar results. Success with Insane Webinar Profits depends heavily on market conditions, commitment, leadership, individual skill and effort. It takes hard work to achieve a substantial income in this business and some Customers will make no money at all. Success cannot be guaranteed. As with almost any business, known and unknown risks exist, your results will be uniquely your own, and will differ from the results of others.
