

Your privacy is extremely important to us. We have created this Privacy Policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to privacy, as well as security, so that you may utilize our information, tools, and opportunities with complete confidence.

This Privacy Policy describes how our company protects and serves the users of our websites and other sources of information (the "Services") including those who access our Services but do not have accounts ("Visitors"), those who provide their contact information ("Subscribers") as well as those who may purchase Products and/or pay a monthly fee ("Customers"). This Privacy Policy includes what we do with the information we collect, and the choices Visitors, Subscribers and Customers have concerning the collection and use of such information. We request that you read this Privacy Policy carefully and contact us with any questions you may have.

Introduction: Our company collects information in different ways from Visitors, Subscribers and Customers who access various parts of our Services including a network of websites owned and operated by our company. We use this information primarily to provide a customized experience as you use our Products and Services, and generally, do not share this information with third parties. However, we may disclose personal information collected if we have received your permission beforehand or in very special circumstances, such as when we believe that such disclosure is required by law or other special cases described below.

Registration: Customers may be asked to provide certain personal information when they sign up for our Products or Services including name, address, telephone number, billing information (such as a credit card number), and the type of personal computer being used to access the Services. Additionally, Subscribers may provide certain information in order to specifically request information and communication from our company. The personal information collected from Subscribers and Customers during the registration process is used to manage each user's account (whether it be for communication, billing purposes, etc.) This information is not shared with third parties, unless specifically stated otherwise or in special circumstances.

However, in instances where our company and a partner jointly promote our Services, we may provide the partner certain personal information, such as the name, address, and username of persons who subscribed to the Services as a result of the joint promotion for the sole purpose of allowing us and the partner to assess the results of the promotion.

In this instance, personal information may not be used by the partner for any other purpose. We may also generate non-identifying and aggregate profiles from personal information Members provide during registration (such as the total number, but not the names, of Members). As explained in more detail below, we may use this aggregated and non-identifying information to sell advertisements that appear on the Services.

Our Company Partners and Sponsors: Some products and services may be offered to Visitors, Subscribers and Customers in conjunction with an affiliate, independent contractor seller or non-affiliated partner. To provide Visitors, Subscribers and Customers with some of these products and services, the partner may need to collect and maintain personal information. In these instances, you will be notified before any such data is collected or transferred and may decide not to use that particular service or feature. In cases such as this we will never give your information for this purpose unless you have explicitly expressed your desire to be contacted by the other party.

Additionally, our partners may have advertisements or co-branded web pages that are co-sponsored by an affiliate, independent contractor seller, or non-affiliated partner. Our company may share non-identifying and aggregate information (except as described above), but not personal information, with such partners in order to administer the co-branded products or services offered.

Online Shopping: At some websites, you can purchase products and services or register to receive materials, such as a newsletter, catalog or new product and service updates. In many cases, you may be asked to provide contact information, such as your name, address, email address, phone number, and credit/debit card information.

If you complete an order for someone else, such as an online gift order sent directly to a recipient, you may be asked to provide information about the recipient, such as the recipient's name, address, and phone number. Our company has no control over the third party's use of any personal information you provide when placing such an order. Please exercise care when doing so.

If you order Services or Products directly from our company we will use the personal information you provide only to process that order. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that order.

Online Advertisements: Our company may display online advertisements. In those cases we share aggregated and non-identifying information about our Visitors and Members collected through the registration process as well as through online surveys and promotions with these advertisers. Your personal information will never be given to an advertiser.

Additionally, in some instances, we use this aggregated and non-identifying information to deliver tailored advertisements or joint ventures. For instance, an advertiser or joint venture company tells us the audience they want to reach and provides us an advertisement tailored to the audience. Based upon the aggregated and non-identifying information we have collected, we may then display or send the advertisement to the intended audience. Our company does not share personal information about its Visitors, Subscribers or Customers with these advertisers or joint venture companies.

Text Privacy: We will not share or use your mobile number for any other purpose than that agreed to in our term of service. You will only receive text messages upon authorizing our company to communicate with you via text message and your cell phone number will remain private.

Responses to Email Inquiries: When Visitors or Members send email inquiries to our company, the return email address is used to answer the email inquiry we receive. Our company does not use the return email address for any other purpose and does not share the return email address with any third party.

Voluntary Customer Surveys: We may periodically conduct both business and individual customer surveys. We encourage our customers to participate in these surveys because they provide us with important information that helps us to improve the types of products and services we offer and how we provide them to you. Your personal information and responses will remain strictly confidential unless you have specifically indicated your desire for us to share your feedback. Participation in our customer surveys is voluntary.

We may take the information we receive from individuals responding to our customer surveys and combine (or aggregate) it with the responses of other customers we may have, to create broader, generic responses to the survey questions (such as gender, age, residence, hobbies, education, employment, industry sector, or other demographic information). We then use the aggregated information to improve the quality of our services to you, and to develop new services and products. This aggregated, non-personally identifying information may be shared with third parties.

Special Cases: It is our company's policy not to use or share the personal information about Visitors, Subscribers or Customers in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

However, we may disclose personal information about Visitors, Subscribers or Members, or information regarding your use of the Services or websites accessible through our Services, for any reason if, in our sole discretion, we believe that it is reasonable to do so, including: credit agencies, collection agencies, merchant database agencies, law enforcement, or to satisfy laws, such as the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, the Child Online Privacy Act, regulations, or governmental or legal requests for such information; to disclose information that is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against someone who may be violating our Acceptable Use Policy or Terms Of Service, or other user policies; to operate the Services properly; or to protect our company and our Subscribers and Customers.
